

YUDENITCH FORCES EVACUATE YAMBURG

Helsingfors Report Says Reds
Are Nearing Narva Line
Held by Estonians.

FLANK DRIVES REPULSED

Bolshevik Activity Seen as Effort to Influence Baltic States Conference.

By the Associated Press.
HELSINGFORS, Nov. 11.—It is reported that Gen. Yudenitch, commander of the Russian Northwest Army, has evacuated Yamburg (captured about two weeks ago) and that large Bolshevik forces are approaching the Narva line, which the Estonians are strongly holding. Gen. Yudenitch is counter attacking with an offensive against Gatchina, which was recaptured by the Reds November 3, according to a communication from the Northwest Russian Army on Sunday. Attacks on the right and left flanks of Yudenitch's army, the statement says, were repulsed with great loss.

[The belief is expressed here that the Bolsheviks are planning a military demonstration in order to influence the negotiations now in progress between the representatives of the Baltic States at Dorpat.]

The correspondence was informed today that the conditions for an armistice with the Bolsheviks have not been fixed, but that representatives of the Baltic States have agreed on a neutral zone and decided to ask the Allies to supervise it. The Allies are not represented at the Dorpat conference, but are being kept fully informed as to its progress.

REVAL, Nov. 10 (delayed).—The outlook in northwest Russia is regarded as hopeful, notwithstanding recent reverses. The optimism is apparently based on the taking over by France of the duties of the British military mission, with the appointment of Gen. Niessel in command. He is expected to arrive in the next few days, and it is hoped that unity of command will be established and sufficient supplies assured.

The evacuation of Yamburg is extremely difficult, as the town is crowded with refugees and the hospitals are filled. Communication with Narva is bad, owing to the lack of rolling stock.

30,000 GALICIANS JOIN GEN. DENIKINE

Head of Ukrainian Forces to Give Up, Says Report.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A wireless despatch received today from Gen. Denikin, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia, says 30,000 Galicians have joined the volunteer army, and that as a consequence Gen. Simon Petliura, head of the Ukrainian forces, intends to lay down arms.

The loss of Utrupinskaya, where Gen. Denikin claims to have captured 1,000 prisoners, is admitted in a Bolshevik communication received here today.

Gen. Petliura declared war on Denikin in October. A despatch from Copenhagen, November 1, quoting the Ukrainian Press Bureau, claimed that Gen. Denikin's army was retreating along the whole of the Ukrainian front under the pressure of Petliura's offensive. Previously Denikin was said to have defeated Petliura in the Zimnitskaya region, and reports had it that uprisings had occurred throughout the Ukraine against the forces of Denikin and that large bodies of troops of Petliura and of Gen. Makhnko were joining the Bolsheviks.

LET RUSSIA ALONE, HUGH CECIL SAYS

M. P. Declares It Is Unwise to Interfere There.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun and the Public Ledger.
Copyright, 1919, all rights reserved.
LONDON, Nov. 11.—Lord Hugh Cecil, M. P., son of the late Marquis of Salisbury, several times Prime Minister, and brother of Lord Robert Cecil, in a statement concerning Russia, says: "I feel a profound conviction that it is unwise to meddle in the internal affairs of another country, that we have no real concern which can in itself justify our interference in Russia, and the presence of our troops or our officers there is only to be defended as a legacy of war. I have the strongest opinion that foreign interference is never more than a temporary beneficial to a country that has a real national life of its own. And I think that some persons are in danger of making a profound mistake about Russia. They are disposed to think because of the obvious political incompetency that Russians have shown since the revolution of March, 1917, that they are really a people like the Egyptians, who need the tutelage of some able State to land them into the paths of civilization. I am sure this is untrue."

"Neither we nor the Germans shall ever be able to control the Russian people. They have their own national character and disposition, and they are conspicuously, among all the peoples of the world, a people devoted to their own national independence. In commerce and in industry indeed, they will readily accept guidance and superintendence from Englishmen and Germans, but it is the vainest of dreams to suppose that as a consequence of that commercial and industrial penetration any political control will follow. The Russians will make their own government and will follow to the end their own policy whatever Englishmen or Germans may do in respect to present disorders."

"The international 'fight the famine' conference held here last week passed this resolution on Russia: 'That this conference considers that the industrial organization of the world cannot be undertaken effectively until Russia is once more enabled to restore her economic life and put at the disposal of the world her vast resources in food and raw materials and that the first step to this end is the cessation of all forcible intervention by foreign Powers whether direct or indirect.'"

"A mandate for Turkey seems to me inconceivable. Such a measure is applicable only to a new born nation. But if the Peace Conference decides, it must be a decision of the last resort, without compromising our independence and liberty."

HELSINGFORS, Nov. 11 (Via London).—A plan to demand the Sultan of Turkey be despatched dated Monday, received here today.

BALTIC DELEGATES HOPING FOR PEACE

Bolshevik Expected at Dorpat Meeting Monday.

By the Associated Press.
DORPAT, Livonia, Nov. 10.—Delegates of the Baltic States who met here to discuss the questions of a union of these States and peace with the Bolsheviks, held conferences yesterday and again this morning. The first general meeting, with representatives of Finland, the Ukraine and Poland in attendance, was held this afternoon. White Russia also was represented.

So far there has been only an exchange of views on the questions of an armistice with the Bolsheviks and the formation of a border States league. M. Pulp, chief of the Estonian delegation, expressed the hope that the conference would result in the bringing of peace to eastern Europe.

Bolshevik representatives, who probably will be Maxim Litvinoff, former Ambassador to London; George Tchitcherin, Foreign Minister, and M. Kraus, Minister of Commerce and Trade, are expected to arrive in Dorpat Monday to discuss with the representatives of the Baltic States the exchange of prisoners of war, on which further negotiations are conditioned.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—The Lithuanian Agency learns from Kovno that through the mediation of American, British and French representatives, the Lithuanian Government has agreed to take part in a conference with a view to settling the differences between Lithuania and Poland. A stern reply has been sent by Lithuania to Col. Avaloff-Bermond's recent invitation to negotiate for peace.

It is said here that Col. Bermond is daily receiving reinforcements and ammunition from Germany.

CIVIL WAR ORDERS ISSUED IN GERMANY

Noske's Troops Capture Communist Programme Sent to Workers.

METAL STRIKE IS OFF

Embargo on Railroad Passenger Traffic Brings Relief in Coal Situation.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Nov. 11.—A Communist programme entitled "Preparations for Civil War," which was captured recently at Karow, near Weimar, by troops of Minister of Defence Noske, contains sixteen instructions to Communists, as follows:

"One—As a preparation for unified dealings it is necessary to inform only reliable men, such as have had the closest connection with the combined executive councils of the Communists and Independents and are considered reliable by the council.

"Two—A basic condition—shortly before beginning the uprising inform the masses.

"Three—The creation of armed groups in individual industries.

"Four—Strike leadership will not be given over to officials of industrial councils.

"Five—The ruthless stoppage of industries.

"Six—Extraordinary demonstrations to be avoided.

"Seven—Industries to be protected against attacks by troops.

"Eight—If an industry can no longer be defended all construction and boilers must be exploded.

"Nine—The occupation of all food bureaus.

"Ten—A general organization is to be created within twenty-four hours.

"Eleven—The several guiding orders and directions will come from Berlin.

The metal workers strike, which had entered upon its eighth week, was virtually called off last night, when the committee of fifteen directing it ordered the strikers to report to headquarters and proceed to make necessary arrangements for the immediate resumption of work.

The seven weeks' holiday cost a big sum lost in wages and also drained the strike treasury, to which sympathizers contribute further, as a real political movement began to loom up in the background.

The big industrial plants also were heavy losers, although it is admitted that the coal shortage in the last few weeks would probably have forced them to shut down temporarily. While they are behind with their orders they say that the seven weeks' cessation of work has enabled them to stock up with coal and raw materials sufficient to permit them to enter upon a busy era.

The first tangible results of the Government embargo on passenger traffic have been reported from the Ruhr region coal fields of West Prussia, where approximately 100,000 freight cars were placed at the disposal of the mines last week. This represents an increase of 20 per cent. over the previous week. The Ruhr coal deliveries, which are expected to show a heavy increase this week, are being diverted chiefly to south German cities.

More than 7,000 cars daily were placed at the disposal of the upper Silesian coalfields last week, this being also an increase of 25 per cent. over the previous week and more than sufficient to meet the daily output of the mines.

ERZBERGER'S PLANS ARE CALLED RUINOUS

Would Leave Germans Paupers, Says Dr. Heine.

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—Dr. K. W. W. Heine, Minister of the Interior, in a sensational speech at Dessau yesterday declared that the financial plans of Matthias Erzberger, the financial secretary, if carried would mean the collapse of the entire empire.

Erzberger, he said, had to find money wherever it was obtainable in order to carry out the terms of the peace treaty, but, he asked, what commons had an interest in getting money together when it would all go to fill the Emperor's big pockets and leave the people paupers?

The speaker added that the Federal States must strongly oppose Erzberger's plans.

The Vossische Zeitung has been ordered to suspend publication for three days because of an article in its columns stating that France was justified in retaining German war prisoners.

French Honor Mrs. Duryea.

Small Walkout in Paterson Marks Armistice Day.

PATERSON, Nov. 11.—Between 1,500 and 2,000 silk weavers in Paterson, N. J., affiliated with the Amalgamated Textile Workers of America, celebrated Armistice Day by going on strike for a 15 per cent. increase in wages. Seventy-five small factories are affected by the strike order.

Evans Thomas, one of the organizers of the union, reports that the demands have been granted by eight shops. It is said that while the workers in the bigger mills are watching with interest the outcome of the Amalgamated strike there is no desire on the part of any group of them joining with the radical organization in its latest move.

2,000 SILK WEAVERS STRIKE.

breathing freely, the old spirit of adventure came back and within a period of a few weeks new issues amounting to $100,000,000 were brought out, nearly all of them characteristic British investments, circumscribed not by geographical lines but only by profit, for the companies represent endeavors in every part of the globe.

These conditions caused investors to turn their backs upon Treasury bills and in one week the sales of these securities fell from $500,000,000 to $300,000,000. This brought up another problem; either the Government must go without funds or new issues of capital would have to be stopped. But all this was anticipated, and at just the right moment, when it looked as if the next issue of Treasury bills would go begging, the Bank of England raised its discount rate and the yield on Treasury bills was increased.

This does not mean that sterling exchange is going to rise immediately to par because of the large influx of funds drawn here by the higher interest rates. It is the beginning of a great programme that will take time to work out, but it is likely to have a steady effect upon sterling exchange, and no doubt will cause appreciation in the long run as conditions improve and the objects sought are attained.

When the subject of all-wool clothes is discussed we do not feel at all sheepish as we might if we tried to ram down the throat of the innocent public the "cornering - the wool - markets" arguments. We admit that other clothiers sell all-wool clothes, but we'd like to see the shop that sells all-wool clothes at the prices of ours without sacrificing style or tailoring—something—
